DEATHS.

Mr. George Doehrer, aged about 37 years, died at his home, on Pleasant street, at 2 o'clock, yesterday morning, of peritonitis, after about ten days' illness. Mr. Doehrer was born and raised in Paris, in fact, he died in a house built on the same lot and adjoining the house he was born in. He was a carriage painter by trade, and for a number of years was a faithful member of the Paris Fire Department. He was a bright and genial young man and much liked by his many friends. He is survived by two sisters, Mrs. W. H. Maddox, of Texas, and Miss Rebecca Doehrer, of this city. The devotion of Miss Rebecca and George was beautiful to behold, they having lived alone together since the death of their parents, but the Grim Reaper has no favorites and seems to lay his cold hand of death upon those who should especially have lived, for in this instance he leaves a loving, broken-hearted sister alone in the world. We cannot, however, question the motive in these things, for the all-wise God makes no mistakes and faith in Him will bring light out of darkness and all will be well.

The funeral services will be held this (Friday) afternoon, at 1:30 at the residence, conducted by Rev. J. S. Malone, of the First Presbyterian Church. The remains will then be taken, at 2 o'clock, on a special interurban car to the Lexington cemetery for interment. All friends of the family are invited to attend.

Mr. John W. Green, aged about 38 years, died at his home in this city Thursday night of Bright's disease. Mr. Green had been in poor health for several years, and had a large circle of friends who will be grieved to hear of his death. The funeral will take place this (Friday) afternoon, at 2 o'clock, services at the grave by Rev. Dr. E. H. Rutherford. Pallbearers: Bob Turner, Stamps Moore, Horace Redmon, Wm. Turner, Denis Dundon and Jeff Elgin.

Hog Killing.

Remember, Laughlin Bros. will kill your hogs, render your lard, etc. They have on the market spare ribs, back bones and tenderloin. tf

Decoration for Court House.

We understand that a decorator is in the city trying to make contract with the building committee for decorations for the new Court House. It is to be hoped that the committee will not fail to have this work done. This is to be one of the handsomest Court Houses in Kentucky and we may say in the country and it should be given these finishing touches by all means. There is nothing that sets off a building as these beautiful decorations and the committee should be encouraged by everyone to have this work done. Even an unexperienced eye can point out several places where these decorations are badly needed and should be made at almost any cost. Don't let's have an unfinished job gentlemen, but when the house is completed let it be an ornament as well as a monument to Bourbon county. Secure a first-class decorator and let this necessary improvement be added to the building.
